

DELEGATE EVALUATION RUBRIC. (Last updated February 9, 2023)

Category	Exemplary (4)	Excellent (3)	Developing (2)	Emerging (1)	No Impression (0)
Committee preparation	Delegate is fully prepared for the committee with background on the topic.	Delegate is adequately prepared for the committee with background on the topic.	Delegate is partially prepared for the committee with key knowledge about the committee.	Delegate has some relevant knowledge on the committee.	Delegate is not prepared for the committee.
Situational Awareness	Delegate is aware of the workings of the committee and makes insightful additions to the committee.	Delegate is aware of the workings of the committee and contributes to the committee.	Delegate tries to understand the working of the committee and comments on the topic.	Delegate does not understand the workings of the committee and makes no relevant comments.	Delegate does not take part in the committee.
Country Relevance	Delegate takes part in the conference with the aims of achieving their country's policy and make clauses that would be feasible, and realistic for their country to achieve.	Delegate takes part in the conference with the aims of achieving their country's policy and make clauses that could be feasible for their country, but at times could be unrealistic.	Delegate takes part in the conference and tries to achieve the aims of their nation and makes clauses that are favorable for their nation but are mostly unrealistic.	Delegate takes part in the conference without addressing the aims of their country and makes clauses that would not benefit their country.	Delegate does not play the role of their allocated country.
Problem Solving	Delegate communicates with other delegates and makes compromises that help reach a resolution without compromising their own country's policy. Delegate is also able to make logical resolutions during the crisis.	Delegate communicates with other delegates and tries to make compromises that help reach a resolution. Delegate tries to make logical resolutions during the crisis.	Delegate communicates with other delegates and makes compromises that help reach a resolution but may undermine their own nation's agenda. Delegate contributes during the crisis, but may make unrealistic resolutions	Delegate tries to communicate with other delegates and aids in the creation of a resolution but may undermine their own nation's agenda. Delegate tries to help to solve the crisis but does not have an impact on the crisis resolution.	The delegate does not communicate with other delegates and does not make compromises that help to reach a resolution. Delegate does not participate in the crisis.
Crisis Response	Delegate is able to calmly understand the crisis and helps lead the committee to a resolution that is in their own nation's interest. Delegate actively participates in the caucuses and creates relationships with other nations to solve the crisis.	Delegate understands the crisis and contributes to the committee to reach a resolution that is in their own nation's interest. Delegate participates in the caucuses and creates relationships with other nations to solve the crisis.	Delegate partially understands the crisis and helps the committee reach a resolution that is in their own nation's interest. Delegate participates in the caucuses and forms a few relationships with other nations to solve the crisis.	Delegate partially understands the crisis and discusses with the committee to reach a resolution that may/may not be in their nation's interest. Delegate tries to participate in the caucuses and negotiates with other nations to solve the crisis.	Delegates does not understand the crisis. Delegate does not participate in the caucuses and does not form relationships with other nations.
Language	Delegate uses formal language throughout the committee and uses appropriate language to speak throughout the committee.	Delegate mostly uses formal language throughout the committee and mostly uses appropriate language to speak throughout the committee.	Delegate usually uses formal language throughout the committee and usually uses the appropriate language to speak throughout the committee.	Delegate occasionally uses formal language throughout the committee and sometimes uses appropriate language to speak throughout the committee.	Delegate does not use formal language throughout the committee and does not use appropriate language to speak throughout the committee.
Points

